We are pleased to announce Kingston University London will be hosting the fifth International Conference (SCMT5) as follow up from the four successful events in Coventry, UK (2007), Ancona, Italy (2010), Kyoto, Japan (2013) and Las Vegas, USA (2016). The conference will be held on 15-17 July 2019, with a registration and welcome reception on 14 July 2019.

Kingston University is based in Kingston upon Thames, a busy riverside town in South West London, with historical sites such as Hampton Court Palace and the majestic Richmond Park close by. A short 30 minute train journey will take you straight to the heart of the Capital. Embrace London and all that it has to offer, from shopping sprees in Oxford Street, sightseeing on top of the London Eye, taking in a show at the London Palladium, refuelling at The Ritz or relaxing and reflecting along the River Thames.

Abstracts of 200 - 300 words may be submitted online via the conference webpage or via email.

Accommodation
The Conference Organising Committee is currently negotiating specially discounted rates for the delegates - details of which will be included in the Conference Advance Programme - to be circulated in mid 2018.

Exhibitions / Trade Fair
There will be a concurrent exhibition relating to the subject area and such trade fair has been the focal point at the events in the past. This will provide an opportunity for concrete manufacturers, materials suppliers, contractors, publishers, research, educational and professional institutions companies to display their latest products and services in the field related to the conference themes.

For further information or to reserve an exhibition space: kingstonuniversityeventsSEC@kingston.ac.uk

Sponsorships
Sponsorships are requested to support the conference. All sponsors will be recognised during the session events.

There are several categories of sponsorships - for further information please email: kingstonuniversityeventsSEC@kingston.ac.uk
