CRMEP Open Learning week

All sessions: JG0001

Tuesday 22 May

11.00–12.30
Peter Hallward
'The will of the people: a revolutionary idea!'
Text: Extracts from Hobbes, Rousseau, Robespierre, Lenin, Gramsci, Fanon, (extracts to be supplied in class).

13.00–14.30
Isabell Dahms
'How does the preface work? Questioning the inside and outside of the philosophical text'
Texts: Preface to Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit; Preface to Denise Ferreira da Silva’s Towards a Global Idea of Race; Two Prefaces to Judith Butler's Gender Trouble. (Extracts to be supplied in class)

15.00–16.30
Rebecca Carson
'The role of money in Marx'
(Extracts to be supplied in class)

17.00–18.30
Austin Gross
'The members of spirit, family’s limbs: part one of “Spirit” in Hegel’s Phenomenology’
Text: Phenomenology of Spirit 6A. ‘True Spirit, Ethicality’

Wednesday 23 May

11.00–12.30
Stella Sandford
‘Translation as bungled action: The psychopathology of everyday life’

13.00–14.30
Andrew Benjamin
‘Dignity and Judgment: Notes on Philosophical Anthropology’

15.00–16.30
Chris Jones
'Philosophy, humanity and the 70-year anniversary of the 1948 UDHR (Universal Declaration of Human Rights)
Texts: UDHR, especially the preamble, Kant Perpetual Peace (extracts to be supplied in class).

17.00–18.30
Andrew Bevan
'Is to practice philosophy to practice for death? Irigaray and the life of philosophy.'
Texts: Extracts from Plato and Irigaray (Extracts to be supplied in class).

Thursday 24 May

11.00–12.30
Lucie Mercier
'Michel Serres's Leibniz'

13.00–14.30
Luke Collison
Doing Violence to Justice: Agamben's Archaeology of Law

15.00–16.30
Steve Howard
'The history of philosophy as a philosophical problem'
Text: Martial Gueroult, 'The history of philosophy as a philosophical problem' (Find it online; extracts to be supplied in class)

17.00–18.30
Peter Osborne
‘Artwork as Object, Subject and Thing’
Text: Extracts from Adorno’s Aesthetic Theory (to be supplied in class)

18.30–20.00
Reception